EBU Session: Examinations and assessments – European standards

Location: Green Area, Room 10 (Level 1)

Chairs: A. Papatsoris, Athens (GR)
J.D. Nawrocki, Brighton (GB)

Aims and objectives of this session
The common purpose of all urologists is the best care for the patient. The EBU in collaboration with the EAU and national urological organisations is concerned with the standards of training and education for urologists of the present and the future. The aim of this session is to explore current and future needs.

---

11:00 - 11:10

In-Service Assessments (ISA) and FEBU examinations: What are they? What is their purpose?
S. Tekgül, Ankara (TR)

11:10 - 11:20

In-Service assessments and FEBU examinations: The trainee’s perspective – are they worth it? How to be successful in the exam
J.L. Vásquez Mendoza, Herlev (DK)

11:20 - 11:30

In-Service assessments (ISA) and FEBU examinations: Future developments and direction
A.J. Figueiredo, Coimbra (PT)

11:30 - 12:00

Round table discussion

Panel:
A.J. Figueiredo, Coimbra (PT)
S. Tekgül, Ankara (TR)
J.L. Vásquez Mendoza, Herlev (DK)

---

11:30 - 12:00

Can EBU assessments be of any value in countries that have well established systems of education and training?

11:30 - 12:00

Why should residents undertake EBU exams and assessments if they are not mandatory requirements in their native countries?

11:30 - 12:00

How can European examinations and assessments help if there is great diversity of healthcare systems and training of urologists between countries?

11:30 - 12:00

Can European standards and assessments benefit countries beyond Europe?

11:30 - 12:00

How should someone prepare for the examinations and score well?